Macomber of Kau, county of Hawaii, for $20,500 at 7 per cent per annum, the term of the loan being three years. ## BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN HONOLULU

Local people are surprised at the quick results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka, the German appendicitis remedy. The Hollister Drug Co states that this simple remedy antisepticizes the digestive system and draws off the impurities so thoroughly that a SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY.

WAIALUA GIVES REPUBLICANS CHEER

Republican speakers, candidates and campaigners came back from their big Waialua rally last Saturday night to count the enemy returned with the report that there were only thirty-eight all told, counting speakers and everybody that could be counted. Two auto mishaps occurred coming back, Jim Quinn's auto overturning and shaking up a number of politicians, while W. H. McClellan and Lester Petrie in another machine almost went over the embankment at Moanalua.

POLITICIANS IN AUTO ACCIDENT

What might have been a fatal automobile accident turned out to be merely a mishap early Sunday morning, when a machine driven by Jim Quinn and containing a load of politicians on their way back from a political joyfest overturned at Waikakala gulch and the inmates were badly jolted and bruised. The machine left Waialua about 1:30 Sunday morning and in it were A. D. Castro, Vincent Fernandez, A. V. Peters and M. C. Pacheco, chairman of the Democratic territorial central committee. Whether it was the presence of a Democrat among the galaxy of Republicans or the effects of the political meeting at Waialua nobody can say, but at any rate the machine was awry and overturned. Driver Quinn was dazed and his shoulder hurt. Castro was bruised along one side and the others escaped luckily with minor bruises. Quinn was able to drive the machine back to town.

MAHUKA CASE

The jury was taken downtown and shown over the property involved: Frank J. Dutra, Alfred H. Junglaun, H. H. Hovush, William R. Kinsela, R. William Warham, Henry H. Plummer of Waialua, J. H. Hertsche, Ed. F. Blaisdell of Papaikou, Hawaii; C. J. Lynch, Charles B. Houston, Arthur E. Larimer and Fred W. J. Zeigler. During the 11 o'clock recess, after the jury had virtually been picked, James Harry Mackenzie disappeared, failing to show up when court was resumed, and he was excused, Helmbush being called and qualified as his successor.

Mr. Long, a venireman, during questioning by Attorney Olson, confessed that if the court instructed him on any point of law and he was inclined to disagree with the court's opinion on the matter, he would accept his own opinion rather than that of the court.

Attorney Olson immediately asked that Mr. Long be excused. Thinking the juror did not understand the question Judge Dole explained it at some length, but Long adhered to his original statement. Attorney Breckons remarked to the court:

"I would recommend that this man be excused from the October venire, since he is inclined to pay no heed to the court's instructions. The judge suggested that the juror, in following the proceedings of the court, might see fit to change his ideas later."

"Very well," replied Breckons, "if the court desires to go into the reform business I have no objection." During the examination of A. E. Larimer, who is social secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Attorney Breckons asked him:

"I presume from your calling, that you have never had occasion to meet Attorney Olson, counsel for the other side?" Olson smilingly interrupted with:

"Oh yes, we're acquainted; I'm a member in good standing at the Y. M. C. A."

"You haven't got anything on me," retorted Breckons; "so am I."

Fred W. J. Zeigler admitted to Attorney Olson that he had had business dealings with the U. S. district attorney, having sold him some insurance.

"Well," asked Olson, "is that likely to prejudice you one way or another, because he represents one side of this case? If it is, I might take some insurance, just to even up matters."

The hearings will begin at 8:30 a. m. and continue to 12:30 each day, beginning tomorrow morning.

POLITICAL NOTES

The soapbox at Bethel and King streets is a busy place at noon these days. The Democrats and independent candidates keep the oratorical throne pretty busy.

L. L. McCandless told a crowd gathered to hear him on the soap-box last Saturday that it's up to the voters of Oahu to elect him or defeat him. He declares that he is more than holding his own on the other islands. He made several verbal attacks on Delegate Kuhio.

The Home Rulers and Independents will hold a big mass meeting next Saturday night at Aala park. Several of the old-time orators will be on the program.

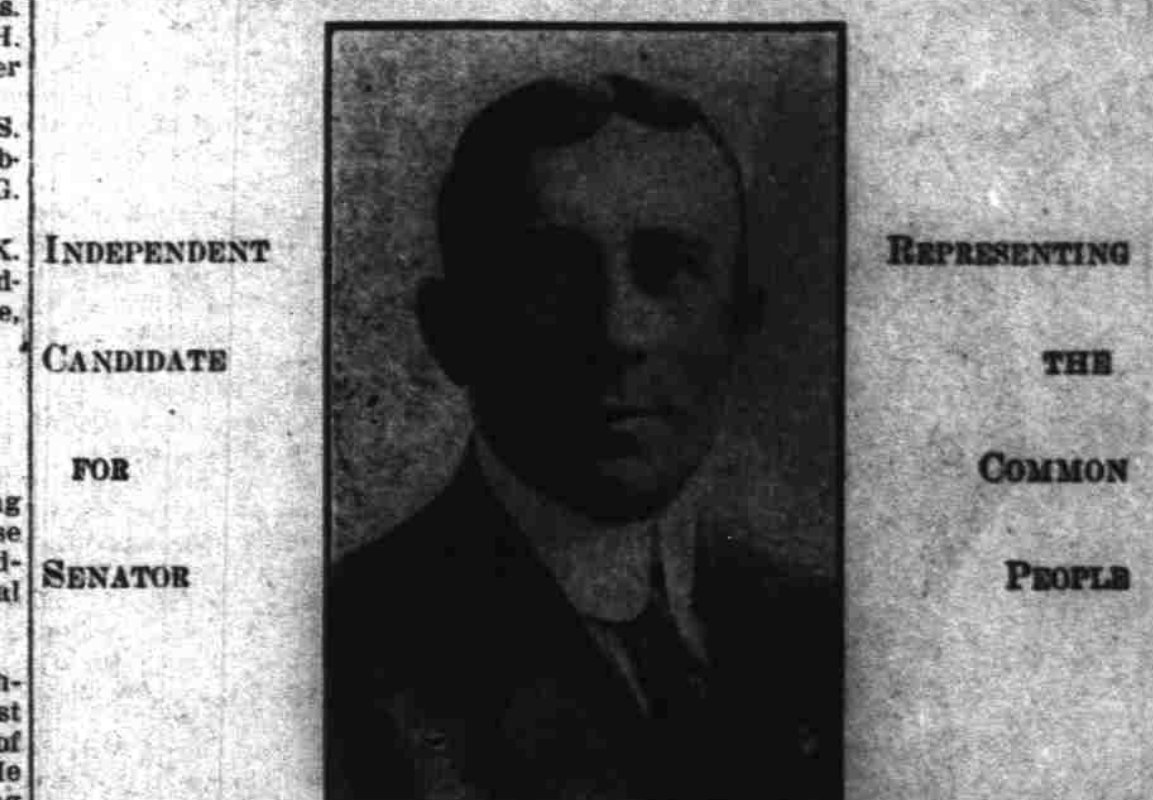

The Democratic county committee held a meeting last Saturday night and discussed drastic action against several local Bourbons accused of having been boosting for Republicans. George K. Kane, president of the Sixth precinct club of the Fourth district, and Paul Hokii are to be given a chance to prove themselves Democrats or suffer the consequences of probable expulsion. Jesse Uluhi, alleged to have been speaking for Republican candidates, was expelled from the party.

PRACTICAL APPRECIATION OF SCHOOL BUILDING

Various wants of Liliuokalani school of things that the department of education is not in a position to supply, are posted up in the assembly hall. At the meeting of the improvement club there a few evenings ago, these wants were discussed, and one member volunteered to provide a cot, while a drum was promised by two members jointly. The drum has been delivered. A gas cooking stove, bats and balls, a medicine chest, etc., are among the things wanted. The improvement club took steps at the meeting to have the school grounds put in condition for games and recreation. In this way the club is expressing its appreciation of the fine school house erected in the district.

NOT CONTROLLED BY THE BIG INTERESTS

STRAIGHT TICKET VOTING.

If all things are equal vote you party ticket, but if the party puts up men for office who are unfit, either through incompetency or by virtue of their business affiliations, THEN SCRATCH.

The straight party cry is the cry of the party boss. It originated with Tammany in New York. It is the shibboleth that has kept most of the big cities boss-ridden.

Boss Tweed, Croker and Murphy held their power thereby. Most all the cases of GRAFT, BOODLE, etc., we hear of occur in the boss ridden cities and these bosses are kept in power because they control the party organization. To remain in power the bosses raise the party cry and the howl goes up: "VOTE THE STRAIGHT TICKET."

You, yourself, are low kicking because our present government of county affairs is unsatisfactory. You, yourself, have seen good legislation defeated through controlled legislatures, yet the PARTY BOSSES get together and put up tickets to continue this state of affairs.

They put up men who are ignorant and can be controlled. They put up men who are crooks and can be bought. Some good men are put on the ticket to give it an air of respectability and then you are asked to SWALLOW THE WHOLE THING.

If you think for yourself you are not considered a good party man and all the PAID HOWLERS who ARE good party men because they are paid to be such by the party bosses, make life miserable for you.

If you openly declare against the straight ticket, the paid workers report it back to the committee who are THE DELUDED TOOLS OF THE BOSSES, who in turn represent the BIG AND SOMETIMES CORRUPT INTERESTS.

The word is passed along the line and the screws begin to turn. HOW MANY OF YOU HAVE FELT THE TIGHTENING OF THIS SCREW?

It is about time these conditions were changed and the way to do it is by INDEPENDENT ACTION.

When you are voting for the best men who represent the best ideas you are voting for your country's best interests.

Your duty to your country is greater than to your party. As long as you vote straight party regardless of the men running and the principles they represent, so long will you have poor administration of public affairs. When you pick out the best men regardless of party and elect them, you will find HONESTY AND EFFICIENCY IN GOVERNMENT.

The man who tells you to vote the straight ticket is either a Party Boss, a Paid Worker, a Candidate on the ticket, or a Fool.

J. C. COHEN
